Statement of Significance: (non-statutory summary)

No Statement is provided for places listed prior to 2007

Why is it significant?:

The Heritage Council may enter a place in the Heritage Register if it meets one or more of the following criteria from the Historic Cultural Heritage Act 1995:

- a) The place is important to the course or pattern of Tasmania's history.
- b) The place possesses uncommon or rare aspects of Tasmania's history.
- c) The place has the potential to yield information that will contribute to an understanding of Tasmania's history.
- d) The place is important in demonstrating the principal characteristics of a class of place in Tasmania's history.

Dungrove is of historic heritage significance because of its ability to demonstrate the principal characteristics of a sandstone Federation Queen Anne domestic building. The early cottage has the ability to demonstrate the principal characteristics of an early sandstone house and the Shearing shed is able to demonstrate the growth and development of a nineteenth century rural building.

- e) The place is important in demonstrating a high degree of creative or technical achievement.
- f) The place has a strong or special association with a particular community or cultural group for social or spiritual reasons.
- g) The place has a special association with the life or works of a person, or group of persons, of importance in Tasmania's history.
- h) The place is important in exhibiting particular aesthetic characteristics.

Heritage approval is required for work that will result in changes to the nature or appearance of the fabric of a Heritage place, both internal and external.

Please refer to the Heritage Council's Works Guidelines (www.heritage.tas.gov.au) for information about the level of approval required and appropriate outcomes.

Heritage Advisors are also available to answer questions and provide guidance on enquiries@heritage.tas.gov.au or Tel 1300850332

This data sheet is intended to provide sufficient information and justification for listing the place on the Heritage Register. Under the legislation, only one of the criteria needs to be met. The data sheet is not intended to be a comprehensive inventory of the heritage values of the place, there may be other heritage values of interest to the Heritage Council not currently acknowledged.

Setting:

No Data Recorded

Description:

This is a farm site consisting of three significant buildings, an early Georgian sandstone cottage featuring a central door and flanking double hung window, dormer windows and a Dutch gabled roof, a Federation Queen Anne homestead featuring three projecting gables, one on each sides and a third on the diagonal corner over a verandah, the walls are rough hewn sandstone quarried nearby, the roof a primary hip with projecting gables and skillion dormers, the third building on the site is an early shearing shed with numerous additions and extensions. The shearing shed is a strong visual element of the site.
