

Attachment 4 – Summary of the Outcome of Consultations Undertaken. Further details to be provided as part of the supporting documentation in the Environmental Impact Statement (EIS)

Stakeholders	Consultation Methods	Outcome of Consultations
Community / Public	Website Pop-up info sessions Attend community events Surveys Newsletters	Broad support for project. Information gained about what the community values in their local area. Validated the project approach and location. Further details to be provided within EIS.
Local businesses	Meetings and interviews	Broad support for project. Keen to see the economic benefits and stimulus of development in the area. Further details to be provided within EIS.
Representative Aboriginal Parties	Cultural heritage surveys on site	Identification of new cultural heritage sites. Adjustment of project layout to avoid cultural heritage sites or to minimise the potential for impacts where feasible. Further details to be provided within EIS.
Representative Aboriginal Parties	Meetings	Feedback received to inform the methods and approaches taken by the project to maximise benefits to First Nations people, including employment opportunities. Further details to be provided within EIS.
Local Government Authorities	Meetings	Discussions around project logistics to inform project requirements (e.g. accommodation, material supplies, community benefits fund). Further details to be provided within EIS.